

2013 ANNUAL CONVENTION CALL FOR PROPOSALS

The National Employment Lawyers Association invites proposals for its 2013 Annual Convention, which will be held on June 26-June 29, 2013 at the Sheraton Denver Downtown in Denver, CO. The 2013 Convention will offer three or more plenary sessions and 30 concurrent sessions over three days. Generally, concurrent sessions are 75-90 minutes long, and feature a moderator and two speakers. Individuals interested in submitting proposals must agree to: (1) work cooperatively with the moderator and co-speaker(s) of his/her session in coordinating the oral presentations and written materials; (2) submit a substantive paper on the topic he/she has agreed to address by the specified deadline; (3) assume travel expenses; and (4) pay the Convention registration fee. NELA hopes to enhance the quality and diversity of its Annual Convention by including your ideas through this Call for Proposals. NELA reserves the right to modify proposals that are accepted and to select speakers other than those proposed. NELA will contact you only if your proposal is accepted by the Annual Convention Committee. Thank you for sharing your ideas with us!

The deadline for submission of proposals is Friday, September 7, 2012.
